

EAGLE TIMES

Round Valley School

Lebanon, New Jersey 08833

Volume 2, Issue 6

The Students' Newspaper

February 2009

Purple Day

By Samantha Magda

Purple Day was started by Cassidy Megan of Nova Scotia, Canada. Ten year old Cassidy has epilepsy and wants other kids with epilepsy to know that "epileptics are not alone."

Fifty million people worldwide have epilepsy. Since lavender is the symbolic color of epilepsy, Cassidy named this special day after the color. March 26 is Purple Day. Cassidy is asking everyone to wear purple on March 26.